

NPRM 02-230 should be struck down from your decision making immediately. As a government agency, you serve the people. The MPAA and the RIAA have no business influencing your decisions. They are obviously lobbying in the interests of their own pockets, and not in the interest of a free nation founded under the U.S. Constitution. Keep your priorities where they should lay as a servant of the people.